

PRESIDENTIAL FELLOWS

The Center for the Study of the Presidency and Congress

Fellows with then-Governor John Hickenlooper

Senators Joe Manchin and Susan Collins

"The Center for the Study of the Presidency and Congress brings a critical eye to analysis of the federal government, and just as importantly, brings students into the fold to foster greater understanding of these two institutions."

- President Barack Obama

For over 50 years, the Center's Presidential Fellows program has given undergraduate and graduate students the opportunity to study the U.S. political system, to share their outstanding research, to explore public service leadership, and to travel to Washington, D.C. to learn about the policy-making process from experts and practitioners. This non-resident program takes place over the course of an academic year and is offered to students from both American and international universities.

CONTACT

FOR MORE INFORMATION

TRAVEL TO WASHINGTON, DC

Visit Washington, DC for a leadership conference focused on exploring key policy issues with expert speakers.

BUILD A GLOBAL NETWORK

Network with peers from across the United States and around the world.

ENGAGE WITH NATIONAL LEADERS

Meet with U.S. officials from the State Department, Congress, the White House, and more.

PUBLISH YOUR WORK

Work with a mentor to write a 10-15 page research paper that is eligible for publication and a $1,000 prize and earn academic credit.