

Princeton School of Public and International Affairs in New Jersey

Inaugural GARDEN STATE FELLOWSHIP IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

Instructions:

Eligible SPIA Princeton University students should be current Princeton University seniors graduating in May 2023 or MPA1 students and authorized to work full time in the US. Please fill out the below application and email it to Cara Carpenito at cc15@princeton.edu (including your essay, transcripts, and resume).

Make sure your name is on all of the documents and part of the file name.

We require a letter of recommendation. Have your recommender send their letter of recommendation to Cara Carpenito at cc15@princeton.edu

5 dd`JWjcb`jg`Xi Y.`: YVfi Ufm%7`Uh%$$`DA`

1. Name

Last name

First name

2. Are you authorized to work fulltime in the US?

3. Current mobile phone number

4. Major (including certificate programs)

5. List the agencies/non-profits or describe the general field of public policy that you are interested in.

6. Do you speak foreign language(s)? If so, list languages and levels:

7. Attach your essay titled 'What Public Service Means to Me.' (approximately 500 words)

8. List recommender's name and position and have them email their letter to Cara Carpenito at cc15@princeton.edu